

IMA members say,

Educ

"The IMA Mentoring Conference I attended several years ago was a turning point for our institution's ineffective mentoring program! With the tools I gained from IMA, I was able to transform our program.

THANKS IMA"

— Col. Anna Crockett,
Student Mentor Program
Coordinator, Virginia Military
Institute

Biz

"I came to IMA to share what I knew about mentoring, but once there, I got so much more than I gave. Wow! IMA mentors US, supports our development, and helps us improve our programs ." — Jim Newman,

Director, State Farm Insurance Company
Mentoring Program,
California, USA

Youth

"This was much more helpful than other conferences we attended. Our investment in attending has already been paid back many times over. We won't miss the next IMA Conference." — Jeni Elkins, CEO,
Discoveries Unlimited Youth
Mentoring Program, Indiana

International Mentoring Association
c/o Educator Support Center
501 Airport Drive, Suite 209
Farmington, NM USA 87401

The International Mentoring Association

Since 1987, the International Mentoring Association has been the premier source for best practice solutions and support of mentoring and coaching professionals and their programs.

We're missing
someone important,
YOU

www.mentoring-association.org

INTERNATIONAL MENTORING

ASSOCIATION

Best Practices for Individuals & Organizations

About the IMA

The IMA was formed in 1988 to address the worldwide need for access to authoritative mentoring research, best practices, and proven mentoring solutions for every setting. The mentoring professionals who are IMA members, share an inherent willingness to invest in others' success. This quality, our commitment to diversity, plus the depth and breadth of IMA member expertise, all make the IMA a completely unique opportunity to increase YOUR success!

Expert, Time-Saving Guidance for YOU:

- 400+ web pages of best practice guidelines, expert advice, mentoring research, proven models, and program descriptions;
- Current mentoring news and the latest expert guidance, six times a year in our e-newsletter;
- Face-to-face, phone & email advice and insights from mentoring experts and practitioners in your mentoring role & setting;
- Access to 4,000 mentor research citations in the annotated Mentoring Body of Knowledge;
- Access to the experience of all members through the Membership Directory and two mentoring discussion networks;

Save Money on Your Needs:

- Discounted registration for the outstanding IMA International Mentor Conference, institutes, and regional events;
- Discounts on our authoritative publications;
- 75% discounted subscription to the Tutor and Mentoring Journal;

Give Back & Make a Difference:

- by your participation in the great cause of the IMA worldwide mentoring initiative.

Mission Statement

"To create global communities for sharing resources that lead to development of highly effective mentoring programs via a support base of diversity through a variety of venues"

Select YOUR Membership Option:

- Corporate / Government $275
This membership includes two persons under the name of the organization. One person is listed as the primary member. Both individuals receive the same membership benefits, all mailings, and information. A second delegate is not required.
- Non-Profit Institutional $100
This membership allows the institution to name two individuals to receive the membership benefits, support, and all the information. One person is listed as the primary member. A second person is optional.
- Individual $65
A person with this kind of membership may work for any type of organization or institution.
- Student $40
Only for currently enrolled students. Confirmation of full-time student status must be included with the membership form.

Want to know more about IMA?

Want to Join us ?

Have Questions ?

Call:
505-599-8771
Ext: 4003

Visit: www.mentoring-association.org
e-mail: cemorton@fms.k12.nm.us

Who Should Join the IMA?

We welcome anyone interested in the theory, research and application of effective mentoring, including:

- Mentor program directors;
- Staff and organization development leaders;
- Educators (K-12 to graduate);
- Human resource directors;
- Business and not-for-profit professionals;
- Mentoring researchers;
- Mentor trainers and consultants;
- Mentors and protégés.

Join Today!

Dr. Mr. Ms. _____

Position _____

Organization _____

Address _____

City _____ St/Prov _____

Country _____ Zip/Post Code _____

Phone _____ Fax _____

E-Mail _____

Please give us all the above information so that you will receive all mailings & our e-newsletter.
Thanks.